

NORTH WEST

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

8TH TERM OF OFFICE

27 JULY 2020 TO 26 JULY 2023

BACKGROUND OF THE CDCs

“ The Community Development Councils (CDCs) were set up in 1997 to bring about a more caring and cohesive society. Over time, CDCs have evolved but their relevance and roles remain unchanged to harness the community spirit, support the less able and build caring communities for a stronger Singapore. ”

Mr Goh Chok Tong
Prime Minister (1990 to 2004)

NORTH WEST CDC

VISION

A Caring and Healthy
North West Community

MISSION

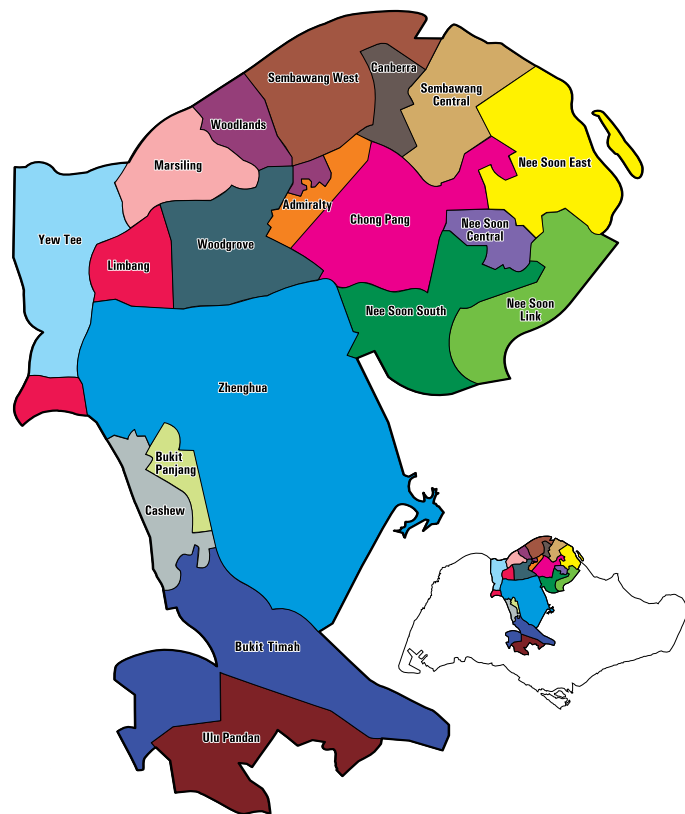

Assisting the needy
Bonding the people
Connecting the community

“ The CDC sits in a unique position to play the role of the enabler in the district, through forming meaningful networks and aggregating resources and expertise. We are excited to induct passionate individuals into the Council, each bringing a unique blend of skills, experiences and networks to drive meaningful programmes and contribute towards the sustainable development of North West District in the long-term. ”

NORTH WEST CDC'S 3 STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS

01

STRENGTHEN SOCIAL INFRASTRUCTURE

- To strengthen social support through local assistance schemes and social programmes
- To promote social mobility
- To encourage self help

02

BUILD SOCIAL RESILIENCE & SOCIAL CAPITAL

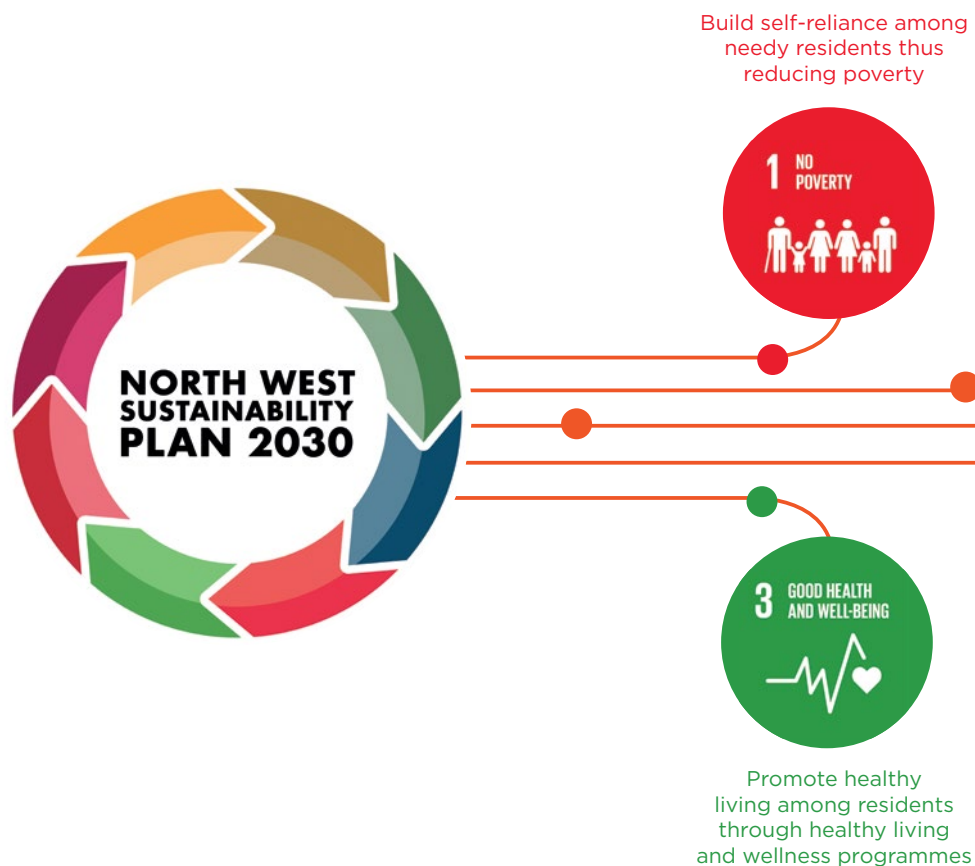

- To strengthen community bonds
- To encourage active citizenry

03

PROMOTE CULTURE OF GIVING BACK

- To encourage the more able to help the less able
- To engender community and corporate ownership through volunteerism and Corporate Social Responsibility by adopting local causes, and partnering community and corporate partners

SUSTAINABILITY PLAN 2030

In 2018, North West CDC announced the adoption of a more holistic approach to promoting sustainability in the North West District. Guided by the Sustainable Singapore Blueprint (SSB)³ and the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the Green Living @ North West programmes are extended to encompass all environmental and social programmes - providing a strengthened focus for the North West Sustainability Plan 2030. Eight United Nations Sustainable Development Goals are adopted and adapted to reflect the mission and values of North West CDC under the North West Sustainability Plan 2030.

³ Launched in November 2014, the Sustainable Singapore Blueprint (SSB) 2015 outlines Singapore's national vision and plans to create a more liveable and sustainable Singapore.
